NON-CITIZEN TECHNICAL ADVISER PERFORMANCE AND CONDUCT AGREEMENT

Between:

>Title of agency secretary> (“the Agency Secretary”);

And:

<Full name of Non-Citizen Technical Adviser> (“the Adviser”).

The Adviser is employed by <name of contractor> pursuant to an aid funded program to provide advisory services to <name of Government agency>; and

In accordance with Papua New Guinea law, the Adviser is required to sign a Performance and Conduct Agreement (“the Agreement”) with the Agency Secretary where the Adviser is engaged to provide advisory services.

By signing the Agreement the Adviser undertakes to:

• Comply with the Code of Conduct for Non-Citizen Technical Advisers (see opposite page); and
• Be accountable to the Agency Secretary for his or her work performance in accordance with agreed Terms of Reference and performance outcomes; and
• Contribute to the mentoring, training and capacity building of the Adviser’s counterparts.

This Agreement will remain in force for so long as the Adviser is employed by the contractor to provide advisory services to the Government agency as set out above.

Adviser’s acknowledgement: I have read this Agreement and will comply with all the terms and conditions set out above

Endorsed by DPM Secretary

Authorised by the DPM Secretary in accordance with the Public Employment (Non-Citizen Technical Advisers) Regulation 2016.
